ROMAN CATHOLIC.

The masses tomorrow at St. Patrick's church will be celebrated at 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 o'clock. At the 8 o'clock mass the members of the Children and Mary Sodality will assist and receive their regular monthly communion. Rev. M. P. J. Egan will sing the last mass, which will be solemn high and two priests will officiate with the Catholic University will act as deacon and subdeacon. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. John M. McNamara and Rev. Thomas E. McGuigan will serve as canonist.

At 4 p. m. Rev. James A. Smyth will preside at the devotion for the Children of Mary and at 7:30 p. m. there will be the usual weekly meeting of the League of the Good Shepherd with Monsignor W. T. Russell officiating. Instead of the regular sermon, Mass. Russell will answer the questions that have been placed in the "Question Box" at the entrance to the church during the last month. This will be followed by the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, during which the sanctuary choir will render the hymns.

In the past few weeks a marked increase has been noted in the attendance at the evening prayers, which are held in St. Patrick's every afternoon at 5 p. m. These devotions are being conducted by the recitation of evening prayers, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and hymns by the sanctuary choir. On Friday afternoon the devotions are longer and take the form of the "Holy Hour of Adoration," beginning at 4:30 p. m.

With the Washington Churches

PRESBYTERIAN.

Col. Richard E. Holz, of Philadelphia, representing the Salvation Army, will speak in Guntown-Temple Memorial Presbyterian Church, 14th and R streets, tomorrow at 11 a. m. A retiring offering will be received by ladies at the door for Salvation Army workers. At the 8 o'clock services, Miss Marie C. Brehm will speak, representing the Board of Temperance of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Miss Brehm was appointed to represent the United States as a delegate to the 12th International Congress against Alcoholism, held in London; was the representative of the Church and the Interchurch Temperance Federation at the Hague in 1911; was a delegate and speaker at the Congress at Milan, Italy, 1913, and at many other gatherings has inspired vast audiences.

A lecture will be given in the church Monday, February 21, at 8 p. m. by Dr. James Shera Montgomery, on the topic: "One-Sided People."

At the First Presbyterian Church, John Marshall Place, Rev. Dr. John Brittan Clark will speak tomorrow night on "The Church's First Great Prophet to America."

Those who heard Dr. Clark a year ago at the Continental Hall will be interested in the temporary party that will be incorporated in this sermon.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Patriotic Societies, Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames, Sons of the Revolution and Sons of the American Revolution to hear this address.

The music will be appropriate. Preceding the service there will be a short organ and vocal recital given by Mrs. Schmitt and Miss Leckie, beginning at 7:45 p. m.

At the Church of the Covenant tomorrow afternoon the music will be given by the triple quartet and in the evening by the evening choir of 100 voices with double quartet, both sermons being under the direction of Sydney Lloyd Wright with Harvey Murray at the organ. In response to requests of the members of the congregation the service of last Sunday afternoon will be repeated and in the evening the anthem "I will extol Thee," written by the organist of the church and sung for the first time in Washington last Sunday evening will also be repeated.

An Every Member Canvass will be conducted tomorrow by Fourth Presbyterian Church. Forty men have volunteered for the service and every member of the congregation will be visited in the afternoon. This visitation is in connection with the new system of finances adopted by the church, wherein the pew renting system has been abolished, beginning with March 1st. On Wednesday evening a dinner was held at the church, and reports of the interest in the Canvass exceeded all expectations. Sunday evening a tea will be held at the church just previous to the evening service at which time the canvassers will review their experience.

W. H. H. Smith will deliver the last of his lectures on the Life of Christ at the evening services. He will speak on "Our Lord's Triumph," and will deal with the Ascension. Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Kelly, the pastor, will preach at the morning service.

On Wednesday evening, February 23rd, the Sunday School Teachers and officers will hold the annual meeting for election of officers and reports of work.

Following the election of officers they will hold the evening service on the next Sabbath.

An interesting series of studies is being taken up in the Teachers Training Class by the church. The subject of the first department will be given of work done in the classes. The work is interesting to Sunday School teachers and of great value to parents.

A brief meeting of the Washington Presbyterian will be held on Monday morning, Feb. 21, in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church at 10 o'clock, for the transaction of unfinished business.

It will be followed at 10:30 by a meeting of the Presbyterian Ministers' Association, when Rev. Charles D. Vrooman, moderator of the Baltimore Synod, will read a paper on "John Calvin."

Dr. Harvey Porter of Beirut, Syria, is expected to speak at the Ministers' Association on the following morning, Feb. 23, at the same hour and place. Dr. Porter will take as his subject, "The Condition of Education in Palestine."

Rev. George D. Berry, field secretary of the McCall Mission, will speak in the Church of the Covenant on Connecticut Ave. tomorrow morning, Feb. 23, on the subject, "The France of Today." The pastor, Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, will deliver the evening sermon on the topic, "The Message of Christianity to the Modern World About Capital and Labor."

Dr. Bertram Post, medical instructor in Robert College, Constantinople, will speak tomorrow evening in Eastern Presbyterian Church, Dr. Post, who had just returned to this country when Turkey joined in the present war, will tell of the "Work of Robert College and of its Armenian students." Dr. Post has spent a number of years in the Near East and has been in close touch with the people whose fate in the war is holding the interest of the world.

"Vacation Day" will be the subject of the sermon of Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning. In the evening he will continue his series of talks on historic revivals, using as his topic, "The Great Awakening."

At the Second Baptist Church, Fourth and Virginia avenue, southeast, tomorrow evening at 7:45 the pastor, Rev. Howard L. Stewart, will begin a series of "Our People's History" talks. The first topic being "The Tragedy of a Lost Crown." He will give a prelude on "The Incomparable George Washington." The second topic will be "The American Revolution."
